AB LARUE WRITES SWAN SONG IN JUNIOR HOCKEY AS HUSKIES ARE ELIMINATED

The Haliburton Huskies ended their 1971-72 season last Thursday night in Bancroft as the Jets trounced the local club to the tune of 9 to 1. The Huskies were never in the game, and it was apparent from the start of the game that the Huskies knew they had lost before the match had begun. With the Jets in front of a hometown crowd of 700 fans it wasn't long before they had scored their first goal, and never looked back throughout the game. They were fired up and their ferocious forechecking kept the Huskies bottled up in their end for minutes at a time. The Jets have a fast skating club and with John Parish out of the Husky lineup they were moving over the Husky blue line with reckless abandon. Normally with John in the game opposing forwards know enough to approach the Husky blue line with caution. The 5 midgets in the Husky lineup played a creditable game with Larry Robinson assisting on the Huskies only goal by Jeff Campbell.

There were several Huskies who finished junior hockey on Thurs. because of overage and it was too bad that they had to finish on such a sour note. Gerry McElwain was able to salvage some satisfaction out of his last season as he won the Lloyd Gilliam Trophy as the leagues leading scorer, with 30 goals and 59 assists. Gerry played 4 seasons with the Huskies and was easily their steadiest performer throughout. You could always count on Gerry to play the powerplay, kill penalties, play double shift when needed and to shadow a high scorer. It is with regret that fans in the Haliburton area will not be able to watch Gerry in action in the future. The trophy for the scoring award will not be able to be presented to Gerry in front of a home town crowd, but the Husky club and fans offer congratulations to him. Bob Woodcock and John Parish are 2 other Husky stalwarts that are now overage for junior competition. Both these boys have provided the Halibur-ton fans with many outstanding games and it is also with regret that they will not be seen in the Haliburton area in the future. Both Bob and John were Husky captains and did a terrific job in that capacity. It will be a long time before the Haliburton area will boast a team as strong as last year's championship team with players as talented as these three boys.

The past season has been a disappointment to the Husky management as the fan support dropped drastically from last year. The season seemed to be anti-climatic as everyone feels that since the team captured an Ontario Championship last year they should do it every year even though the club lost 7 players from that club. Albert and Scotty LaRue would like to thank all the people who helped with the team during the past 7 years, and there were many. The club could not have operated without help and everything that everyone did was appreciated. During the past few seasons people such as Bob Nichol, Rev. John Smith, George Nicholls, Bernard Bain, Ray Scott, Wilson McElwain, Anne Schell, Don Johnston and the late Alicide Carpentier gave many hours of their time to make the Huskies a successful operation. There are still many people who should be mentioned and the Huskies thank them. The Honor The Huskies Day that was organized by the Haliburton Council and the people of the community was a great tribute to a great team and will always be remembered. At this point it is with regret that Albert LaRue has decided to withdraw his sponsorship of the Huskies to devote more time with the Haliburton Minor hockey. He hopes that someone in the community will carry on with the club as he has done in the past 7 years. He feels that he has done his part in bringing junior hockey to Haliburton, and as years go by the travelling involved becomes more of a burden. Perhaps the Haliburton Minor Hockey will be able

COUNCIL HERE PASSES BY-LAW TO CONSTRUCT NEW ARENA

After months of preparation, fund raising and dedicated hard work by volunteer workers, the Municipal Council of the Townships of Anson, Hinton and Minden passed the By-law authorizing the construction of the new proposed Community Centre in Minden Park.

The complex, estimated to cost approximately $253,000 was designed by Mr. Ronald Harrison, P. Eng. of Peterborough. Preliminary arrangements are being made by Municipal Officers for the financing of the project through the Ontario Municipal Improvement Corporation.

The entire proposal has now been placed before the Ontario Municipal Board for final approval and construction is anticipated to commence in late Spring. The O.M.B. is expected to call the Public hearing on the project at an early date. The campaign for funds is still in effect and a number of donors have indicated that further financial support is forthcoming.

CURLING NEWS

Once again the Minden ladies enjoyed the hospitality of the Haliburton ladies on Wednesday, March 8.

The following are the results: 1st prize with 30½ points - Minden: Phyl Campbell, Maisie McIntosh, Della Griffen, Helen McCullum.

2nd prize with 30 points - Haliburton: Irene Bailey, Helen Good, Mary Pearsell, Margaret Wilford.

nated Bobcaygeon in the semi-finals, they met the Ops team from Oakwood. In the first game, Minden shut-out Ops 8-0 in Haliburton.

The pattern of the second game in Oakwood was set early when Harold Porter scored the first of his eleven goals at the thirteen second mark. Before the game was five minutes old they had built their lead to 7 nil. Porter had seven, Shawn Harrison, Danny Greir, Brent Moxam, Craig Coneybeare and Lenny Blaskovitch one each to end the first period 12-0.

In the second period Steve Gilmore scored from Dale Burke to cut the Minden lead to 12-1. Porter then added his eighth and ninth goals before the period ended.

The third period was all Minden as they tossed the puck around freely amongst themselves. Porter picked up his tenth and eleventh goals, while Shawn Harrison picked up his second of the game.

The three stars of the game were Harold Porter, Shawn Harrison and Joe McMinn.

Some interesting statistics on this years Minden Mites. They went undefeated in league and play-off games. Goalie Mike Hatkoski had a fine .50 goals against average. Harold Porter scored 52 points on 44 goals and 8 assists. The team as a whole scored 70 goals and their defence yeiled a meager 5 goals. Coupled with their 70 goals were 42 assists for 112 scoring points in 10 games, for an average of 11 points per game. Quite an enviable record. Scott Arbutnot and Joe McMinn blossomed into two of the finest defencemen in the league, due mainly to the coaching of Larry Kent and Jim Hatkoski. The biggest surprise of the season was the splendid play of the mites second line of Brent Moxam, Shawn Harrison and Craig Coneybeare, once again the product of excellent coaching and patience. Lenny Blaskovich and Shane Blakey should be congratulated for their great play even though their linemate Harold Porter took most of the limelight. Some of the other mites who, although did not score many points, were a vital part of this years championship team. These players are Greg Austin, Danny Greir, Paul Northey and Stanley Baker. Congratulations on a great season Mites.

"WE SELL THE EARTH AND INSURE IT'S CONTENTS"

HERE AND THERE

with Fenwick Finch

Last Fall, a week or so before Labour Day I made several interviews. It was my intention to use them in this column the following week. That weekend I went into hospital for 10 days and my notes got laid away. I just found them in time for this week's column. Better late than never.

This interview comprised one question, "What do you know about artificial respiration?" I put the question to 25 people, men, women and teen-agers. The answer should give you something to think about. The answers were mostly the same, they had seen demonstrations of "mouth-to-mouth" resuscitation but not ONE of them — think of this, not ONE of them had any experience or training in any of the three methods.

Artificial respiration, pumping breath into the lungs of victims of drowning, suffocation, electric shock and gas poisoning, is a very important phase of life-saving. These emergencies are quite common, you could be confronted with them at any time. Are you going to be able to do anything about it or do you just stand there and stare at the victim and do nothing?

We live in a tourist area and we should be equipped to step into emergencies — primarily drownings — we could be the means of saving a life that could otherwise be lost in those first few minutes of crisis.

The part that frightened me about these interviews was the fact that not ONE of those questioned could have raised a hand to help.

Mechanical devices work well, after they get there, it's the time that is lost getting them there that is crucial. The first five or six minutes after the accident is where the time counts, hence the lifesaving usually depends on some bystander who can work with his bare hands.

In my years as a Hydro employee I was trained, as well as all members of the Staff in first aid and artificial respiration. Five times in my thirty odd years on the job I was called upon to use it. Twice I was successful in assisting to bring life back. There is quite a feeling to have life return under your ministrations. The other side of the coin, when Death defeats you — is hard to live with. But, you know at least you tried.

The three forms of artificial respiration, the "Schafer" or prone pressure method the "Holger Neilson" and the latest, "Mouth to Mouth". The most of my training was in the "Schafer" method and, as it gave way to the other methods I was trained in them.

The theory behind these first two methods was the pressure of air from the lungs and the reflex action would return the air. This was continued until all hope was given up for revival.

Accident victims of drowning have in some cases have been revived after five hours of work with the Schafer method. An Ontario Hydro lineman was returned after 8 hours of work on him. There are reports of people being in the water for a half an hour or more and being brought back.

There isn't enough space for me to go into the matter fully, but let me ask you this. Which one are you going to be when next you see a drowning victim — are you going to stand there wringing your hands or are you going to be able to do something about it? Think of this, it could be someone near and dear to you that dies because of your inability to do anything. The training is easy, the skill costs nothing to carry, and while you may never be called upon to use it you will have the satisfaction of knowing you have "Life in your hands."

My good wife's address for a couple of weeks — Room 723, University Wing, Toronto General Hospital.

to reorganize itself to include the junior team. He would like to add his own personal thanks to everyone who was involved with the club since its first season, including all the players. It was great satisfaction to have so many good players go through the Husky ranks and it was especially satisfying to see Ron Stackhouse become an established NHL player after getting his start with the Huskies, and the Haliburton Minor Hockey. If the Huskies are entered again next year, there could be many more future NHL players developed in the town of Haliburton.

FIFTY YEARS OF SERVICE

It was a snowy day in November, 1922, when a dozen men — some of them physicians and surgeons and others representing 10 service clubs — met at the Prince Edward hotel in Windsor under the auspices of the Rotary Club.

After a long discussion the 12 men realized the tremendous number of uncared for cases of crippled children across the province and were appalled. They realized, too, the special skills some of them had acquired during World War I in dealing with severe battle casualties. They decided to employ some of the almost miraculous techniques of orthopedic surgery which was then developing rapidly.

So they did something positive about it and formed the Ontario Society for Crippled Children.

In the first year the 10 service clubs looked after 75 handicapped children. Today 230 service clubs are affiliated with the Society in the tiniest villages and largest cities of Ontario and wherever crippled children need clinics, braces, artificial limbs, wheel chairs, summer camps, cerebral palsy clinics or transportation.

Rotarians here in Minden met Monday night and discussed their campaign, which will get underway this week, for crippled children.

John Pentney is the Chairman for this year's campaign and told members of the club, their objective this year was $800.00. He said that each year the Minden Rotary Club has met their objective and hoped the people in the community would back this drive with great enthusiasm.

Talking about 50 years of service, it was brought up at the Monday meeting that the Minden Club is in its 25th year of operation. Over those years Treasurer, Percy Brintnell said the Club here has raised some $18,000.00 for Crippled Children and have contributed in many other ways on the local scene.

It's been a long way — and sometimes a bumpy one financially — down through that first half century. I would bet the 12 men who met 50 years ago to form the Ontario Society for Crippled Children might raise their eyebrows a bit if they could see Denis Lapalme, whom I read about recently, playing hockey, just three years after a train cut off both his legs.

The next half century promises even more startling treatments, new surgical techniques and electrically powered artificial limbs for handicapped children. To benefit most will be the Thalidomide group, born with partial or complete absence of limbs, and others maimed and crippled by accidents, cerebral palsy and other diseases.

Through its world-famous Crippled Children's Centre — which is a 106-bed hospital with facilities to treat more than 300 out-patients — and because of its nursing service, clinics, summer camps, vocational training and research for nearly 15,000 handicapped youngsters, the Society's original aim has never changed.

Its job has been — and still is — to make the word "orthopedic" — which means "straight child" — come alive. But it all takes money. Not just a small amount — but millions of dollars. So, when you receive your package of Easter Seals in the mail, from the Rotary Club here in Minden, please respond generously.

MINDEN WINS FENELON

FALLS NOVICE

TOURNAMENT

by Cliff Burke

Fenelon Falls held their annual Invitational Novice Hockey Tournament on Saturday, Mar. 11th. The teams entered were Fenelon Falls, Minden, Little Britain, Lindsay, Cambray, Bobcaygeon, Woodville and Coboconk.

Minden faced the eventual Consolation Winners Little Britain in the first round and blanked them 6-0. The Minden players came out flying in this game and never let the Britain team get untracked, as Mike Bird the Minden goalie handled four shots in the whole game. Scoring for Minden were Tom Gough with two; Mark Greir, Paul McKenzie, Brian Shaw and Leslie Booth had singles to round out the scoring.

Minden faced Lindsay in the semi-final and once again the whole team played superb hockey as they shut-out the powerful Lindsay squad 3-0. The outstanding player on the ice in this game was young Mark Greir who not only scored two goals but skated his heart out the whole game. Leslie Booth scored the other Minden goal while Paul McKenzie picked up two assists.

The final proved to be the toughest game of the day for Minden as it took them almost a full period to get untracked. The Woodville team kept plenty of pressure on Mike Bird but he was equal to the onslaught as he made two or three remarkable saves. Minden won this game 4-1 and Tom Gough played his best game of the day as he scored all four goals. The only goal for Woodville went to Steve Cameron in the late stages of the game.

After losing 6-0 to Minden the team from Little Britain settled down and played good hockey. They defeated Cambray 5-0 in the semi-final, then polished off Coboconk 8-4 in the Consolation final. In the final game Little Britain defenceman Kevin Jenkins scored seven goals and set up his brother Terry for the eighth.

with CLIFF BURKE

Just a reminder of the Rod and Gun Stew Dinner and Dance on Saturday, March 18th starting at 5:30 p.m. at the Rod and Gun.

Another sporting event coming up this weekend at the Minden Curling Club is the Hyland Masters Curling Bonspiel. Don't miss this exciting curling action between young men of 21 years and under, this Saturday, March 18th. There are some great teams entered from Toronto, Lindsay, Bancroft, Fenelon Falls, Port Carling, Haliburton, Minden, and Brockville. Come on out and watch the action.

In exhibition hockey last week the Minden Peewee A's went down to defeat at the hands of Haliburton 7 - 1. Brian Shaw was the lone marksman for Minden on a pass from Bill Hogg.

In Shuffleboard last week the Dominion Tournament was won by Bud Anderson and Walt Ackerblade. The Rockcliffe Hotel winners for the second week in a row were Doug Robinson and Paul Warburton.

In the Minden men's Bowling league first place was locked up last week by Swann's Electric with 107 points. This is the second straight year Swann's have taken the league Championship. C.G.L. managed to hang on and take second place from Modern Electric. There is still this week to go in league action and then the play-offs start next week.

Haliburton midgets took a two nothing lead in their best of five semi-final series with Creemore. On Saturday, March 11th in Creemore the Haliburton team won 3 - 1. On Sunday, in Haliburton the Haliburton team shut-out Creemore 3 - 0.

In Novice play-offs the Haliburton novices upset heavily favored Beaverton in a very exciting game 4 - 3. Trailing 3 - 1 going into the third period, Bernie Nichols scored three goals for Haliburton to win the game. The final of the best of three series is in Beaverton on Tuesday March 14th.

In the Thursday night mixed curling play-offs, Thomas, Ingram, Hall and Pettinger are in the finals. Finished for the season are Deacon, Windover, McKnight and McIntosh. Ed Pettinger will play Bill Ingram in the Consolation round at 8 p.m. Thursday, March 16th. At the same time Dwight Thomas will tangle with Don Hall for the Thursday Mixed Championship.

POEM

by Archibald Dorin

Long have I waited for freedom
To do as I want as I will
The older I get the more I can see
Life is just an unpaid bill.

It is always in the background
It is something I'm going to do
After the job at home is done
Will freedom come out of the blue?

Not likely, the Bards have told us
For another task will loom
And while attempting to finish that Don't cover yourself with gloom.

Look ahead, and plan and dream my friend
For a mind with no interest is flat.
Eternal hope for the future must live
And a man can be rich on that.

But while you dream- take a closer look
At the things you have at hand
Remember your health and surroundings are wealth
What better a 'promised land'?

DOLLARS AND GOOD SENSE

by William J. Martin

Mr. Martin serves as special consultant to Avco Financial Services. All questions should be sent to him at P.O. Box 5875, London Ontario, Canada. Those containing a name and address will be answered in this column or by direct return mail. No names will be used in print.

Each year about this time, we all seem to get a lot of advice on filing income tax returns, but just in case you haven't been exposed to the annual lesson yet, I'll try to fill you in.

It's true that, as high as the taxes are, many people end up paying more than they legally owe. This is because legitimate deductions are overlooked and various exemptions are unclaimed.

Recently, the Wall Street Journal, in a test of the 'simplicity' of filing a U.S. income tax return, prepared a mythical case and sent it to several leading accountants and to the Internal Revenue Service. Not one of these experts agreed on the amount of tax to be paid in the example!

Clearly, filing tax returns is a fairly complex matter. Witness the growing hoard of tax return businesses that have sprung up in recent years.

For the simple straight forward return about the only thing a tax return firm can offer is the use of an adding machine in totaling your figures. Most people in this category can do an adequate job of filing a return at home.

When complications arise, however, things can get a little tricky. The government can answer some questions and you can buy a variety of books on the subject, including government publications, but you might consider some outside help.

If this is the case, be very careful about the firm you choose. No matter how they fill out your return, you and only you, the taxpayer, are responsible for its accuracy. You can't get off the hook because a professional organization actually filled out your return.

How does a return get audited by the government? Basically because the computer thought deductions or exemptions claimed were not in keeping with the 'average' based on stated income. So, if you give a lot of money to your church or other charities, get and keep records of the transaction.

As a matter of fact after filing your return, put a copy of it along with all supporting documentation in a folder marked 'taxes - 1971' and keep it in a good safe place for at least three years. Good luck with your 1971 returns.

Perseverance usually pays off. At least it did in the case of Dr. Alan Chapple, Toronto periodontist, winner of the CBC Song Market '72. Dr. Chapple has entered every one of the five annual CBC song-writing contests, and been a finalist three times. He learned of his success on the final broadcast of Song Market on The Entertainers, March 3. Dr. Chapple's determination to win paid off well. He's richer by $1350 for writing the top song, a gospel number, Understanding Hand, sung by The Song Market Singers.

The three finalists are Alan Williamson of Toronto for his song Hideaway Girl; Joe Gannon of Winnipeg (lyrics) and his son Oliver Gannon of Surrey, B.C. (music) for their song The Drink Is Love; and Donald Jewell of Montreal for When I Look In Your Eyes.

Understanding Hand won the overwhelming vote of the judges; songwriter Gene MacLellan; CBC Radio-TV personality Elwood Glover;... Vancouver band leader Doug Parker; vocalist Vanda King; and Jack Feeney, manager and executive producer of RCA Victor recording studios.

On March 18 and 25, The Bush and the Salon presents a two-part adaption of Mrs. Susanna Moodie's pioneer chronicle, Roughing It In The Bush, adapted by Joseph Schull. It offers a fascinating glimpse of what it was like to homestead in Upper Canada in the 1830s.

Last summer the first World Shakespeare Congress was held in Vancouver. On Ideas, March 20, delegates to the Congress comment on its aims and on the bard's continuing popularity around the world. The three following Ideas programs continue to explore the Shakespeare theme: Shakespeare and the director (March 27); Coriolanus (April 3); and Shakespeare in Canada (April 10).

Did you know that Richard Burton spent some time at a training camp in Manitoba when he was doing his National Service with the RAP after the Second World War? That's just one of the many stories unravelled by the famous actor during an interview with broadcaster Tony Thomas at Burton's home in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, part of a profile of the ardent Welshman on CBC Tuesday Night, March 21.

'Arranged' marriages are still a way of life for many Greek men living in Canada. To them, once a woman has been exposed to the common freedoms extended to the North American housewife, she is no longer marriageable material. And so they ask relatives back home to help them out. On Identities, March 18, the story of this type of marriage today.

ADELAIDE DANIELS

SAYS

BREAKFAST CAN HELP YOU LOSE WEIGHT

The trouble with breakfast is that most people aren't eating it. Nutritionists say that 50 per cent of Canadians are willing to skip it. Yet breakfast is the most important meal of the day — even to fat people, who are surprised to learn that it can actually help them back to a normal weight.

Whether you are thin or overweight, breakfast should provide you with at least a fourth of your day's proteins, minerals and vitamins. Without it, you're unlikely to get your full complement of those important nutrients for the day.

Just as serious, is the fact that skipped breakfast results in poor concentration during the morning, afternoon droopiness, and the danger on both occasions of compensating with a sweet-and-starchy high calorie snack that destroys the value of your hard-working weight control programme.

If you are trying to lose weight, you will find it less difficult if you start with a simple but adequate breakfast such as fresh fruit or juice, a poached egg, a slice of whole-wheat bread and skim milk.

Such a breakfast is within the limits of a sound weight watching programme, yet provides enough nourishment to see you alertly through the morning.

When you get up in the morning, you have been without food for at least seven — and more likely, 10 or 11 hours. The body's supply of glucose or blood sugar, essential to the functioning of the brain and central nervous system, is at its lowest ebb for the day.

Doctors tell us that unless the body is freshly primed with the carbohydrates and proteins it needs to keep glucose concentration at a sufficiently high level, you tend to become increasingly nervous and inefficient as the morning wears on.

A light but nourishing breakfast spreads its influence over the entire morning, and keeps you from being hungry by 11 o'clock, or starved by lunchtime.

This is why breakfast can actually help overweight men and women to grow slimmer. And remember — with breakfast you are on your way to a happier, more efficient day.
